

Customer Service practitioner

Level 2

Skills Training UK is a leading independent apprenticeships training provider with a proven track record in partnering with NHS Trusts.

We are committed to helping you understand and use the opportunity of the Apprenticeship Levy to develop and deliver training which effectively supports your plans for patient-centred care and CQI.

Skills Training UK has tailored this Apprenticeship for Customer Service Practitioners working in the NHS and other healthcare services in many types of environment including contact centres, receptions, pharmacies, patient transport, or any customer service point.

They will typically be the key referral point to services and products within the organisation, dealing with general requests, complaints, problems or queries.

As a professional in patient/ customer support, they will gather data and patient/ customer information that will be analysed to influence change and improvements in patient-centred care.

We offer 3 bespoke pathways to enhance learning against the following:

- Face to face customer service delivery
- Remote customer service delivery (eg. call centre)
- Customer service supervisor

Role Requirements

The learner must have the knowledge to be able to carry out

- Providing high quality service to customers delivered from the workplace, digitally, or through going out into the customers' own localities
- Dealing with one or more of the following: dealing with orders, payments, offering service recovery or gaining insight through measuring customer satisfaction
- Demonstrating excellent customer service skills and behaviours as well as product and/or service knowledge when delivering to customers
- Providing service in line with the organisation's customer service standards and strategy and within appropriate regulatory requirements. Customer interactions may cover a wide range of situations and can include; face-to-face, telephone, post, email, text and social media

Duration

The duration of this apprenticeship is minimum 13 months and an independent End Point Assessment must be completed at the end in order to pass. See over.

Training and Support from Skills Training UK

During the apprenticeship the learner will have a dedicated trainer-assessor who will visit them within the work place at least once per month in order to support their learning and development. They will also be supported between visits by off-site information, advice, guidance, academic progress and technical competence support. The trainer-assessor will work with the learner and line manager to ensure successful progression against all elements of the apprenticeship.

>>

<< Eligibility

The learner will be required to have or achieve level 1 English and Maths and to have taken level 2 English and Maths tests prior to completion of their Apprenticeship.

Employer Commitment

An employer must be prepared to provide the learner with the opportunity to carry out work and be part of projects which will enable the learner to produce substantial evidence towards their qualification.

In order to ensure the successful progression of the learner we request that employers participate in joint reviews of the learner's progress at regular intervals throughout the apprenticeship. This ensures continued and positive progress through the apprenticeship. It will also provide the opportunity to discuss and agree how any issues are to be resolved and how additional stretching and challenging activities can be built in.

Knowledge, skills and behaviours

The Level 2 Customer Service practitioner includes the following elements:

Knowledge

- Knowing your customers, including the difference between internal and external customers
- Understanding different needs and priorities and the best ways to manage expectations
- Understanding the organisation, including what 'brand promise' means, the core values and service culture, internal policies, procedures and complaints processes
- Legislation and regulatory requirements, and how to apply them when delivering service
- How to use systems, equipment and technology to meet customer needs
- Types of measurement and evaluation tools available to monitor customer service levels
- Your role and responsibilities, the impact of your actions on others and your targets and goals

- How to create a customer focused experience and build trust
- Understanding the organisation's products and services and keeping up-to-date

Skills

- Interpersonal skills
- Communication skills
- Personal organisation
- Dealing with customer conflict and challenge

Behaviours/Attitude

- Self-development, including taking ownership for keeping knowledge and skills up to date
- Being open to feedback
- Team working
- Equality – treating all customers as individuals to provide a personalised customer experience
- Presentation – dress code, professional language
- "Right first time" – establishing customer requirements clearly, managing expectations and fulfilling the customer promise

Independent End Point Assessment

To successfully complete the apprenticeship, the learner needs to pass an End Point Assessment. This assessment is an independent assessment which has several stages:

- A portfolio – this is a collection of evidence from real work projects
- A practical observation supported with Q&A
- A professional discussion supported by the portfolio of evidence

Professional Recognition

Completion of this apprenticeship will lead to eligibility to join the Institute of Customer Service as an Individual member at Professional level.